Unison Prayer of Confession

Loving God, you have said, "Let not your hearts be troubled." This morning we bring our troubled, weary hearts to you for comfort, for healing, for encouragement. We know that you love us, but we confess that sometimes we don't trust ourselves to you. This morning, we pray that we might feel your presence as near as our very breath and be willing to follow your leading, wherever that may take us. Open our hearts and minds to the comfort you have especially for us, and help us to respond with gratitude. Amen.
