Unison Prayer of Confession
Our gracious Lord, you have endured the sins and doubts of every generation. We confess that we have strayed from your good intentions for us, and have not kept all of your commandments. We confess that we have not trusted you in the midst of life's storm, or shared your good news by word or deed. We have envied others and maybe even betrayed their trust. Forgive us, o Lord. Grant us the confident faith to always put our trust in you, to share the good news of Your love with others, and to live in peace with one another. Amen.
