Unison Prayer of Confession

Almighty and ever-gracious God, we confess that we do not always trust your promises and provisions. Too often, we too exclude our fellow human beings --perhaps out of fear of the unknown or because we feel threatened by them. Forgive us for withholding our love toward others; for not trusting in your care and provisions for us; for breaking your commandments and ignoring your guidance. Help us to truly understand that you love all your children and that you call us to unity, love and peace. Enable us through your Holy Spirit to extend hospitality to all who cross our paths with no regard to their color, race, or class. Through Jesus our Lord. Amen.
