Unison Prayer of Confession

Merciful God, we confess that we have enjoyed comfort while others suffered. We confess satisfaction with our spiritual life while you yearned that we might know you more intimately. We confess to being distracted by the signs of the times, and inattentive to the signs of your coming. Forgive us, God. Make us into new people, trees that bear fruit fit for your kingdom. Give us generous hearts, and fill us with compassion for the cold, and the hungry, and the lonely. Teach us to be satisfied when we have enough, and make us passionate for both truth and justice. Amen.
