

Food for Thought – 1 Kings 17:8-16
June 6, 2010

1. Imagine for a minute that you are Elijah, asking a stranger for food and water. How do you think would you feel if you were him?

2. Now imagine you're the widow. How do you think you would have responded to Elijah's request? Have you ever been in situation when you felt pushed to step out in faith beyond your comfort zone? How did you respond?

3. Have you ever been in a situation where you were provided for in a surprising or unexpected way, or saw it happen to someone you know? What was that like, or what do you think it would be like?

Lord God, help us to trust and obey you, even when – no, ESPECIALLY when – we are afraid. Bring us to a place of trust so that we live fearlessly! Amen.
